

I, on the other hand, believe that New Jersey's do not call laws should be relaxed. As a member of the Mortgage Industry overseeing a telemarketing department, the new laws have started to cripple a major avenue by which my firm reaches and aids clients. Furthermore, Called ID laws exist to allow people the option of ignoring calls they believe to be from telemarketers, and each telemarketing firm must have a "Do Not Call" list that state residents must request to be on.
